

COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA
OFFICE OF THE GOVERNOR

PROCLAMATION

STATE EMPLOYEE RECOGNITION DAY
May 4, 2016

WHEREAS, commonwealth employees are dedicated public servants who perform their jobs with professionalism, compassion, and pride; and

WHEREAS, commonwealth employees are responsible for protecting public safety and health, caring for the less fortunate, enforcing laws, safeguarding the environment, building and maintaining roads, promoting economic growth, licensing professionals and businesses, and preserving historical and cultural resources; and

WHEREAS, millions of Pennsylvanians benefit from the services provided each day by commonwealth employees; and

WHEREAS, commonwealth employees support Government that Works in Pennsylvania by serving as responsible stewards of taxpayer funds and engaging in efforts to improve operations and enhance service delivery throughout state agencies; and

WHEREAS, many commonwealth employees support the well-being of their communities through acts of volunteerism and charity, including contributing millions of dollars to nearly one thousand worthwhile organizations through the State Employee Combined Appeal (SECA) and donating hundreds of gifts to families and seniors through the Holiday Wish Program; and

WHEREAS, on behalf of all Pennsylvanians, it is with great pride that I recognize the contributions of commonwealth employees as part of national public employee appreciation efforts during the first week of May.

THEREFORE, I, Tom Wolf, Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, do hereby proclaim May 4, 2016, as STATE EMPLOYEE RECOGNITION DAY and I encourage all citizens to express gratitude to our state employees for their dedication to public service.

GIVEN under my hand and the Seal of the Governor, at the City of Harrisburg, on this twenty-first day of April in the year of our Lord two thousand and sixteen, and of the Commonwealth the two hundred and fortieth.

Tom Wolf
TOM WOLF
Governor