Date: March 26, 2021	By Direction of:  Jen Swails, Secretary of the Budget  Michael Newsome, Secretary of Administration
Contact Agency: Office of Administration, Human Resources and Management, Human Resources Service Center, Telephone 717.787.8001 Office of the Budget, Office of Comptroller Operations, Bureau of Commonwealth Payroll Operations, Telephone 717.772.5340

This directive establishes policy, responsibilities, and procedures for the restitution of Overpayments and collection of Employee Debts. This amendment updates policy regarding advance notifications.

1. PURPOSE. To establish policy, responsibilities, and procedures for the restitution of Overpayments and collection of Employee Debts.
2. SCOPE. This directive applies to all departments, offices, boards, commissions, and councils under the Governor's jurisdiction and independent agencies (hereinafter referred to as "agencies").
3. OBJECTIVES.
 - a. To provide a uniform process for notification and restitution of Overpayments and collection of Employee Debts.
 - b. To ensure due process and accountability of Commonwealth funds.
4. DEFINITIONS.
 - a. Benefits Under-Deductions. An obligation to the Commonwealth that results when an Employee's contribution for health care is not accurately deducted from the Employee's biweekly pay.
 - b. Compensation. Salary, wages, and the value of benefits granted directly or indirectly to Employees, including the value of benefits provided to an Employee's dependent.

- c. Corrective Action Plan. A document that identifies the cause(s) of an Overpayment, Benefits Under-Deduction, or other Debt and includes detailed procedures or steps taken to prevent future occurrences of such Overpayment, Benefits Under-Deduction, or other Debt.
- d. Debt. An amount of money owed to the Commonwealth.
- e. Employee. A person employed by the Commonwealth. Unless otherwise noted, the term includes current (active) and former (separated) Employees. The term also includes the estate of a deceased Employee.
- f. Overpayment. Compensation in excess of that which an Employee has earned or is entitled to receive.
- g. Pennsylvania State Police Benefits Overpayment. An obligation to the Commonwealth under the State Police Health Benefits Program (SPHBP) or Retired Pennsylvania State Police Program (RPSPP) resulting from the retroactive removal of an Employee or dependent or an Overpayment of claims; requires recoupment of both claim expenses and the cost of employer-paid cost for coverage.
- h. SERS Retirement Account. The defined benefit portion of an Employee's retirement contributions that are maintained by the State Employees' Retirement System (SERS).

5. POLICY.

- a. Restitution must be made for the following: Overpayments, regardless of whether such Overpayments may have occurred through administrative error or oversight, and for Employee Debts resulting from failure to return Commonwealth property as directed; unpaid bills for which an Employee has acknowledged responsibility, such as those associated with corporate card expenditures by management Employees and those associated with leases/agreements governing residing or subsisting in Commonwealth facilities; and expenses related to damage to Commonwealth vehicles.
 - (1) Payroll deductions will be initiated for restitution of Overpayments and collection of other Debts of active Employees.
 - (2) Outstanding Debts will be deducted from a separated Employee's final pay.
 - (3) Debts that exceed the amount of a separated Employee's final pay may be remitted by the separated Employee in a lump sum. Cashier's checks, certified checks, money orders, Automated Clearing House (ACH) transactions, debit cards, and credit cards are the only acceptable instruments for lump sum payments of $500 or more.

- (4) Debts that exceed the amount of a separated Employee's final pay and are not remitted in a lump sum will be recovered from the separated Employee's SERS Retirement Account.
 - (5) Debts that remain after the options in Sections 5.a.(1) through 5.a.(4) of this directive have been exhausted will be referred to the Office of Attorney General for collection, in accordance with Management Directive 310.10 Amended, Collection, Referral, and Compromise or Write-Off of Delinquent Claims and Section 204(c) of the Commonwealth Attorneys Act, Act of October 15, 1980, P.L. 950, as amended, 71 P.S. §§ 732-101 – 732-506.
- b. Written, advance notice must be provided to an active Employee prior to the start of payroll deductions for Debts in excess of $300, except:
 - (1) A Debt arising from damage to or the failure to return Commonwealth property or failure to pay bills for which an Employee has acknowledged responsibility regardless of the amount of the Debt.
 - (2) When an Employee requests a retroactive enrollment in health benefits, the Debt is collected through a lump sum payroll deduction.
 - (3) National Guard debts incurred by non-represented employees will be collected through a lump sum payroll deduction by the Office of the Budget, Office of Comptroller Operations, Bureau of Commonwealth Payroll Operations (BCPO). The Department of Military and Veterans Affairs (DMVA) will notify the guard member of any Debt owed to the Commonwealth.
- c. In the event that any provision of this directive is inconsistent with the terms of a collective bargaining agreement, the terms of the collective bargaining agreement shall control.
- d. Neither agencies nor Office of the Budget, Office of Comptroller Operations, BCPO may exonerate Employees from Debts, except as prescribed by law or in accordance with Management Directive 310.10 Amended, Collection, Referral, and Compromise or Write-Off of Delinquent Claims.
- e. Unearned leave at the time of death is treated as earned approved leave in accordance with Management Directive 505.07 Amended, Personnel Rules and shall not be considered an Overpayment.
- f. Employees required to repay a Pennsylvania Employees Benefit Trust Fund (PEBTF) Benefits Under-Deduction may file an appeal to the PEBTF.
- g. An agency Corrective Action Plan is required in cases of Overpayments greater than or equal to $5,000. The Corrective Action Plan must address the cause(s) of the Overpayment and include steps to prevent future occurrences of Overpayment.

6. RESPONSIBILITIES.

a. Agency Human Resources Office or the Human Resources Service Center (HRSC) shall:

- (1) Update SAP prior to payroll processing to accurately reflect the factors affecting Compensation, including but not limited to, pay, absences, and benefits.
- (2) Advise Employee about the lump sum payroll deduction when processing a retroactive benefits enrollment requested by the Employee.
- (3) Report non-payroll Debts and Overpayments to BCPO.
- (4) Respond to any questions Employees may have regarding Debts and Overpayments.
- (5) Create a Corrective Action Plan and submit the plan to the Office of Administration (OA), Deputy Secretary for Human Resources and Management.

b. Office of the Budget, Office of Comptroller Operations, BCPO shall:

- (1) Notify Employee, in writing, of Debts and Overpayments, in accordance with Sections 5.b. and 5.c. of this directive.
- (2) Provide Employee with options for restitution, in accordance with Section 5.a. of this directive.
- (3) Approve or disapprove Employee requests for reductions to the percentage (normally 15%) withheld from each pay for restitution of Overpayments or collection of Debts.
- (4) Process restitution through payroll deductions, direct payments, or employee retirement accounts.
- (5) Establish accounts receivable for Debts.

c. OA, Human Resources and Management, Office of Employee Relations and Workforce Support, Bureau of Employee Benefits shall:

- (1) Calculate Pennsylvania State Police Benefits Overpayments.
- (2) Report Pennsylvania State Police Benefits Overpayments to BCPO, Receivables Section.
- (3) Notify SPHBP and RPSPP members, in writing, of Pennsylvania State Police Benefits Overpayments.

- d. Employees shall choose, when applicable, the percentage withheld from each pay for restitution of Overpayments or collection of Debts. If requesting a percentage less than 15% of each pay, the Employee must also submit documentation of hardship.
- e. DVMA shall notify Pennsylvania National Guard members of any Debt owed to the Commonwealth.

7. PROCEDURES.

a. Restitution of Salary and Wage Overpayments and Benefits Under-Deductions for Active Employees.

(1) Agency Human Resources Office or HRSC.

- (a) Corrects the Employee's records and/or time entries using appropriate transactions in SAP.
- (b) Responds to any questions the Employee may have regarding the resulting Overpayments.
- (c) Creates a Corrective Action Plan in cases of Overpayments or Benefits Under-Deductions of $5,000 or greater (unless resulting from a workers' compensation case). This Corrective Action Plan must be submitted to the OA, Deputy Secretary for Human Resources and Management.

(2) Office of the Budget, Office of Comptroller Operations, BCPO.

- (a) Obtains reports from SAP and verifies Overpayment calculations.
- (b) Notifies the agency human resources office and the HRSC, in writing, of Overpayments of $5,000 or greater.
- (c) Notifies the Employee, in writing, and supplies documentation of an Overpayment in excess of $300, with a copy to the appropriate union (if required by a collective bargaining agreement). Includes in the notification the options available for repayment: single payment in full via payroll deduction; multiple payroll deductions of 15% of gross pay per pay period, or a greater percentage at the Employee's request; or at the Employee's request and with documentation of hardship and BCPO approval, payroll deductions of not less than 10% of gross pay per pay period, for no more than 26 pay periods. If the provisions of a collective bargaining agreement differ with respect to repayment options, such provisions shall control.

NOTE: When restitution involves confidential information or information protected under state or federal law, the union will not be notified.

- (d) Determines the amount to be deducted from the Employee's pay, in accordance with the option chosen by the Employee.
- (e) Closes the account receivable upon full recovery of the Overpayment. If the Employee separates before the entire Overpayment has been recovered, refer to Section 7.b. of this directive.
- (f) Ensures the Employee's taxable earnings and taxes are corrected for appropriate W-2 reporting.

b. Restitution of Salary and Wage Overpayments and Benefits Under-Deductions of Separated Employees.
